(2) The Designated Officer, on receipt of an application under sub-section (1) shall within the stipulated time limit either directly provide or sanction the service or reject the application and in case of rejection of the application, shall record the reasons in writing. The Designated Officer shall also communicate in writing to the applicant about the period of making an appeal against the order and the name and designation of the First Appellate Authority with its official address to whom the first appeal lies.

Monitoring status of application.

6. (1) Every eligible person having applied for any notified services shall be provided an unique application number by the concerned Public Authority so that he can monitor status of his application online, where such system is in operation, in accordance with such procedure as may be prescribed.

(2) Every Public Authority shall maintain status of all applications regarding notified services online, where such system is in operation, and shall be duty bound to update the status of the same as per the procedure prescribed under the rules.

Use of Information Technology for delivery of notified services.

7. The Government shall encourage and aspire all the Public Authorities to utilize Information Technology to deliver their respective notified services within the stipulated time.

Appointment of appellate authority.

8. (1) The Government or the concerned Public Authority shall appoint by notification an officer not below the rank of Group 'A' or its equivalent rank, who is superior in rank to the Designated Officer, to act as First Appellate Authority to hear and decide the appeal filed by an eligible person against rejection of his application or delay in providing notified services after following due procedure as may be prescribed.

(2) The Government or the concerned Public Authority shall appoint by notification an officer who is superior in rank to the First Appellate Authority to hear and decide the appeal filed by an eligible person against the order of the First Appellate Authority and the application if any filed by the eligible person directly to the said Authority.

9. (1) Any eligible person, whose application is rejected under sub-section (2) of section 5 or who is not provided the notified service within the stipulated time limit, may file an appeal before the First Appellate Authority within thirty days from the date of receipt of order of rejection of the application or the expiry of the stipulated time limit: Appeal.

Provided that, the First Appellate Authority may admit the appeal even after the expiry of the period of thirty days if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(2) The First Appellate Authority may direct the Designated Officer to provide the service to the eligible person within such period as he may specify in order or he may reject the appeal within the period of ninety days from the date of filing of the appeal. In case of rejection of appeal, he shall record the reasons in writing for such rejection:

Provided that, before deciding the appeal, the First Appellate Authority shall give an opportunity of being heard to the appellant as well as to the Designated Officer.

(3) A second appeal against the order of the First Appellate Authority shall lie to the Second Appellate Authority within thirty days from the date on which the order of the First Appellate Authority is received or after ninety days from filing the first appeal in case where the appellant does not receive any order from the First Appellate Authority.

Provided that, the Second Appellate Authority may admit the appeal even after the expiry of the period of thirty days or ninety days, as the case may be, if he is satisfied that the appellant was prevented by sufficient cause from filing the appeal in time.

(4)(a) The Second Appellate Authority may direct the Designated Officer to provide the service to the appellant within such period as he may specify in order or he may reject the appeal within the period of ninety days from the date of filing of the appeal. In case of rejection of the appeal, he shall record the reasons in writing for such rejection:

Provided that, before issuing any order, the Second Appellate Authority shall give opportunity of being heard to the Appellant as well as to the Designated Officer or the First Appellate Authority, as the case may be.

(b) Along with the order to provide notified service, the Second Appellate Authority may impose penalty upon the Designated Officer or the First Appellate Authority according to the provisions of section 10.

(5)(a) If the Designated Officer does not provide service or sanction the service as mentioned in sub-section (2) of section 5, then the applicant aggrieved by such non-compliance may submit an application directly to the First Appellate Authority. This application shall be disposed of in the manner as if it is the first appeal.

(b) If the Designated Officer does not comply with the order of providing the service under sub-section (2), then the applicant aggrieved by such non-compliance may submit an application directly to the Second Appellate Authority after forty-five days of application made to the Designated Officer. This application shall be disposed of in the manner as if it is the second appeal.

(6) The First Appellate Authority and Second Appellate Authority while deciding an appeal under this section, have the same powers as are vested in civil court while trying a suit under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 in respect of the following matters, namely:-

(a) requiring the production and inspection of documents or records;

(b) issuing summons for hearing to the designated officer and appellant; and

(c) any other matter which may be prescribed.

10. (1)(a) Where the First Appellate Authority is of the opinion that the Designated Officer has failed to provide notified service without sufficient and reasonable cause, then he shall impose a penalty subject to such maximum amount as may be specified by the State Government from time to time by notification in the Official Gazette:

(b) Where the Second Appellate Authority is also of the opinion that the Designated officer has defaulted in providing the notified service within the stipulated time limit without sufficient or reasonable cause, he may confirm or vary the penalty imposed by the First Appellate Authority with reasons in writing:

Provided that, the Designated Officer shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard before any penalty is imposed on him.

(2) Where the Second Appellate Authority is of the opinion that the First Appellate Authority has failed to decide the appeal within the stipulated time limit without any sufficient and reasonable cause, or unduly tried to protect the erring Designated Officer then he shall impose a penalty on First Appellate Authority which shall be subject to such maximum amount as may be specified by the State Government from time to time, by notification in the Official Gazette:

Provided that, the Second Appellate Authority shall be given a reasonable opportunity of being heard before any fine or penalty is imposed on him.

Procedure for fixing responsibility on habitual defaulters.

11. (1) The Appellate Authority, in case of habitual default by the Designated Officer, shall inform the State Government or the Public Authority, as the case may be, which shall issue a notice against the Designated Officer found responsible for the repeated delays in delivery of notified services, calling upon him as to why disciplinary action should not be taken against him.

(2) The Designated Officer against whom such notice is issued may represent within a period of fifteen days from the date of receipt of such notice. In case no such representation is received by the Second Appellate Authority, within the prescribed period or explanation received is not found satisfactory, the Second Appellate Authority shall be entitled to issue debit note directing such defaulting Designated Officer either to deposit penalty as stipulated in the debit note or directing the Accounts Officer of concerned Public Authority to debit such amount as specified in the debit note, from the salary of the Designated Officer and deposit the same in the treasury:

Provided that, if the Second Appellate Authority finds reasonable and justified grounds in favour of Designated Officer and come to the conclusion that the delay in delivery of services to the eligible person was not attributable to him, but was attributable to some other Designated Officer, it shall be lawful for the Second Appellate Authority to withdraw the notice against him and issue fresh show cause notice to such other Designated Officer who is found responsible for such delay and the procedure mentioned in sub-sections (1) and (2) shall be applicable mutatis mutandis.

(3) While fixing the responsibility under this Act, the Second Appellate Authority shall follow the principles of natural justice before passing the order in that respect and give reasonable opportunity of being heard to the Designated Officer or the First Appellate Authority, as the case may be.

12. The Designated Officer or First Appellate Authority aggrieved by any order of Second Appellate Authority in respect of imposing of penalty may make an application for revision to such officer as may be nominated by the State Government within the period of sixty days from the date of such order, who shall dispose of the application according to the procedure as may be prescribed: Revision.

Provided that, the officer nominated by the State Government may entertain the application after the expiry of the said period of sixty days, if he is satisfied that the application could not be submitted in time for sufficient reasons.
