PRISON CANTEEN: -

Most of prisoners are accustomed to bidies and tea, Experience has shown that if these are denied to a prisoner he becomes restless and irritable. It is also noticed that such prisoners commit petty jail offences to get these things but behave quite well if they are allowed to enjoy these small facilities. With this object a canteen run on self-supporting basis is provided at every central, special and district prison, class-I Running of canteen in jails is also one of the Jail Reforms recommended by the Jail Reforms Committee which was appointed in 1946. Various kinds of eatable articles such as potatowada, bhajiya, Chiwda, Laddoos, etc. are prepared and sold to prisoners on production of coupons according to their requests. Besides tea is prepared and sold to prisoners. Tobacco, Bidies, Soap etc. are available for sale in prison canteen. Majority of prisoners take the advantage of canteen in Central and District Jails everyday. The preparations are done by the inmates and they are paid wages for the work done.

PRISON HOSPITALS: -

In every central, district and special prison, there is a jail hospital under the management of the Medical Officer (i.e. Resident Medical Officer or the Civil Surgeon) approved by Government. M.M.S. BORSTAL SCHOOL NASIK

The school can accommodate (105).

JAIL MANUFACTURE INDUSTRIES: -

The purpose of imprisoning an offender being reformation and rehabilitation, emphasis is shifted from custody, control to training and treatment of the prisoner. The advances made in the behavioral sciences have made it possible, to change the attitude & approach of the prisoner towards life by specialized treatment now available through Psychiatrists, Psychological services, counseling crime and correction has undergone radical change. A criminal is also a human being first and criminal later on, commits crime because of circumstantial situations or socio-economic factors. It is, therefore, felt that unless a man particularly a prisoner is made aware of the contributing factors for criminal behavior or for commission of an offence and further to help him to combat with such situations and factors by providing him necessary equipment in the form of training and treatment, he is not likely to live an honest and respectable life after his release. Therefore, the prisons are no more custodial institution, but they have a definite role to function and to perform. Prisons, therefore, have to be equipped with the facilities, which can enable the prisoners to “Learn and Earn”.

While he is undergoing his sentence, care is taken that he is not made conscience of his guilt, an attempt is made to make him to forget the offence he has committed the guilt he feels, when his mind is free, fresh & clean it is possible to emolen new ideas and constructive habits of honest and normal life. The success of training and treatment will mostly depend upon the opportunities provided and the manner in which he is deal with by the prison officials.

With this end in view, about 11 small-scale industries are organized. Every Central Prison, Dist. Prisons, Class-I and Borstal School, Nashik have such units. Prisoners get practical knowledge of the working of industries.
in various trades in which they work. This training helps them to earn their livelihood after their release established in various prisons.
